DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The examiner approves the drawings filed on 6/25/04.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 14-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The recitation of claims 14-16 are confusing because it is unclear of whether the claims are method claims or apparatus claims since the preamble set forth for the method claims but the bodies of the claims recite means plus function, which are for the apparatus claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 1, 4-11, and 14-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Mowery, jr. (6,492,897).

Mowery, as shown in figures 1-7, teaches a system for coupling wireless signals to and from a power transmission line communication system comprising electric power wire (27), electric power outlet (28), ultra-wideband transmitter and receiver (24, 58). The coupling system of Mowery supports plurality of modulation techniques including UWB to communicate to and from the power line or power grid, which includes transformer (37), transmission substation (39), and distribution substation (38), through the interface (58) (bridge). See also column 6, lines 38 to column 17, line 7.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

8. Claims 2, 3, 12, 13, 20, and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mowery, Jr. (6,492,897).

Mowery teaches all subject matter claimed except for specify the duration of the UWB pulse (claims 2, 12 and 20) and the power ranging (claims 3, 13 and 21) as claimed. However, to communicate the UWB pulse having the claimed duration and power is only a matter of selecting the operational parameters for a system's need and thus, would not involve any inventive features. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the system of Mowery for communicating the UWB pulse having the claimed duration and power as long as it is still in according with the UWB time domain based technology (column 11, lines 11-28) since it is just one of the range that the UWB signals can be communicated.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. References Akiyama et al (2003/0129978), Green et al (2004/0125859) and Boyden et al (2005/0047379) are cited because they are pertinent to the UWB communication systems.
